

We believe the FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections.

The Indiana's Telephone Privacy law has improved our time at home, we can enjoy our meals without constant interruptions.

We used to receive 3 to 4 calls per evening, now we rarely receive one. Indiana's phone law has been one of the best things to happen for a long time. Please do not change it.